

Grant Round-up 2013/2014

In addition to the Institute for Work & Health (IWH)'s core funding from the Ontario Ministry of Labour, IWH scientists receive peer-reviewed grants and awards from funding agencies. The list below reflects grants received from June 2013 to June 2014.

Lead IWH Scientist	Project	Funder	Dates
Amick, Ben and Hogg-Johnson, Sheilah	Determinants of health and safety in Ontario's construction sector	MOL ROP	2014 – 2016 (two years)
Amick, Ben and Van Eerd, Dwayne	How leaders are using benchmarking information on occupational health and safety	MOL ROP	2014 – 2016 (two years)
Bornstein, Stephen and Irvin, Emma	Synthesizing occupational health and safety knowledge for local stakeholders	Manitoba WCB	2014 – 2016 (two years)
Furlan, Andrea	Evaluation of the Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes (ECHO) model for pain and opioid stewardship in Ontario	CIHR	2014 – 2017 (three years)
Gignac, Monique and Johnson, Sindhu	New perspectives on arthritis and work: The role of gender in employment across the life course	Arthritis Research Foundation	2014 – 2016 (two years)
Kosny, Agnieszka	Engaging health-care providers in the return-to-work process	Manitoba WCB	2014 – 2016 (two years)
Smith, Peter	Understanding why gender and age differences exist in return-to-work following a musculoskeletal injury	CIHR	2014 – 2016 (two years)
Smith, Peter	Developing a gender/sex-sensitive understanding of how the psychosocial work environment is related to chronic disease	CIHR	2014 – 2017 (three years)

Legend

CIHR – Canadian Institutes of Health Research

Manitoba WCB – Workers Compensation Board of Manitoba

MOL ROP – Ontario Ministry of Labour Research Opportunities Program